ARTICLE VIII

By-Laws

The By-Laws of this corporation shall be made, amended, altered or rescinded as defined in the By-Laws.

(Rev. 06/20/04)

ARTICLE IX

Not For Profit Status

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall go to the benefit of any individual or member.

The corporation shall not endorse any candidate for public office nor participate in any political campaign or contest for public office. Nothing contained herein shall in any manner preclude the corporation from acting as proponent or opponent of any governmental activity of any kind which may affect the corporation or the purposes for which the corporation was formed; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall this be construed to allow the corporation as such to advocate for any public office any person seeking election or appointment thereto. This restriction shall not prohibit any individual member of the corporation in their individual capacity in any manner or way.

In the event that this corporation is dissolved with any assets therein, the Executive Committee shall decide the disposition of all club assets, and shall transfer to any other nonprofit corporation or group of a similar nature to this corporation or such other entity that is a corporation not operating for profit, and which when receiving such assets would not make such transfer taxable by any governmental entity.

ARTICLE X

Dues

The payment of annual, membership dues and assessments shall be determined in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE XI

Powers

In order to promote the purpose of this corporation, it may acquire property by grant, gift, purchase, devise or bequest and hold and dispose of such property as the corporation shall require for the benefit of the members and not for monetary profit.

(Rev. 06/20/04)

ARTICLE XII

Meetings

The Parliamentary procedure of Roberts Rules of Order, latest revision, shall govern the conduct and deliberations at all meetings.

Types, places, dates and quorums for all meetings shall be determined in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE XIII

Voting

For the purpose of voting in this corporation, all members in good standing (not junior members) shall be entitled to one vote. All voting shall be done in person at any regularly scheduled for special meeting. Proxy voting shall not be allowed, nor any other mail and type ballot. Telephone and fax voting will also not be allowed.
